First City Credit Union

MADE BY & FOR LA COUNTY'S FINEST

On September 28, 1937, a dedicated group of Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputies and other county government employees, driven by the challenges of the Great Depression, established the Los Angeles County Employees #11 Federal Credit Union in a downtown hotel. Over time, it experienced notable changes, including mergers with other credit unions, a name change to 1st City Savings Federal Credit Union in 1985, later rebranding as First City Credit Union in 2002, and a merger with Focus One Credit Union in 2010.

While our name has evolved, our unwavering commitment to the well-being of our members, including sheriffs and county employees, remains constant. As a cooperative, not-for-profit financial institution, we reinvest our earnings to offer you better rates, reduced fees, and personalized service.

We remain committed and dedicated to serving those who serve, and this is our First City promise to you.
